

Tuesday, June 5, 2007

Dear Colleagues:

On behalf of the Association of Hispanic Mental Health Professionals (AHMHP), we are delighted to invite you and the Members of your Organization to the Conference:

"BRAINS AT RISK IN THE HISPANIC COMMUNITY"

• PRESENTER

Clinton B. Wright, M.D., M.S.
Assistant Professor of Neurology
Neurology Department
College of Physicians and Surgeons
Columbia University

Dr. Wright is an Assistant Professor of Neurology at the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons and an Assistant Attending at the New York Presbyterian Hospital. He has clinical duties on the Stroke Service of New York Presbyterian Hospital and cares for outpatients with cerebrovascular and cognitive disorders. He is an investigator in several clinical trials on stroke prevention. Dr. Wright is a co-investigator in the Northern Manhattan Study and is the recipient of a grant from the National Institutes of Health to study the vascular determinants of cognitive impairment and decline.

• WHEN

Thursday, June 21, 2007, 6 pm.

• WHERE

*Saul Farber Auditorium
Bellevue Hospital Center
462 First Avenue, Ground Floor
New York, NY 10016*

This event is free of charge.

This will be a great opportunity for other Latino associations, community leaders, scientists and all those involved in community health to meet, discuss and share their opinions and experiences.

Please join us for drinks and refreshments after the conference.

In order to ensure the comfort of everyone participating in the event, we ask you to please confirm your attendance. Please R.S.V.P by e-mail to: marcela.bonafina@med.nyu.edu or jrivolta@neuro.columbia.edu

We look forward to seeing you there.

Best regards,

Marcela Bonafina, Ph.D
President

Juan Rivolta, M.D,
Vice-President

Association of Hispanic Mental Health Professionals