

Association of Hispanic Mental Health Professionals (AHMHP)

Every year, the Association awards four scholarships in the amount of $1,500 each. The requirements for prospective applicants are: 1) Must be enrolled in a graduate program in the field of mental health (i.e., psychology, nursing, medicine or social work, either at a Masters or doctoral level). 2) Hispanic or Hispanic descent. 3) Adequate demonstration of academic potential.

Prospective applicants will be asked to submit the enclosed application form; an essay that speaks of their present or future involvement in mental health in the Hispanic community; Curriculum Vitae; a school transcript; a letter of reference; and, a consent statement signed before a notary public to the AHMHP's address on the form.

The paper application submission deadline will be January 8th, 2010. All prospective applicants should also send their personal information and a statement of interest to AHMHP via e-mail to the e-mail address below as soon as possible.
